

ADDITIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS FOR INTAKE 2018

KTU offers eight scholarships for outstanding doctoral students (in addition to a scholarship established by the Government of the Republic of Lithuania).

Amount of a scholarship: 6240 EUR per year

Period of scholarship: September 2018 – August 2019

Field of science	Research area	Number of available scholarships
Electrical and Electronic Engineering	health technologies	1
Chemistry	new materials for industry and medicine	1
Chemical Engineering	food technology	1
Informatics	digital transformation and smart environments	1
Informatics Engineering	digital transformation and smart environments	1
Materials Engineering	new materials for industry and medicine	1
Transport Engineering	transport and aviation technologies	1
Management	innovations management	1

Scholarships are granted to eight doctoral students, who meet the requirements:

1. Doctoral student is admitted during intake 2018.
2. Doctoral student's research topic falls into one of the research areas listed in the table above.
3. Doctoral student agrees to volunteer part-time in study process (lectures, laboratory (supervised), supervision of bachelor student's final projects);
4. Doctoral student prepares and provides a certain action plan with clearly indicated research goals.

Applications

Call for applications will be announced by KTU Doctoral School