A large group of students, mostly young adults, are gathered in a modern auditorium with a dark, grid-patterned ceiling and blue seats. They are all holding up small white cards or pieces of paper, many of which they are waving or holding high in the air. The students are dressed in casual attire, including sweaters, jackets, and scarves. The atmosphere appears to be one of excitement and participation. The text is overlaid on a semi-transparent dark blue circle in the center of the image.
