² – Features of the study programme:

- Specialisations. A specialisation offered in a study programme is a set of study modules of at least 24 credits in volume which enables the achievement of the results of studies in the same study field or group of study fields. A specialisation enables the development of specific and/or deeper competencies in the field.
- BA+ competencies package. A competency consists of a set of modules of the study field other than the one the student is studying (18 or 30 credits). The list of BA+ competencies is available on the website at <https://stoiantiesiems.ktu.edu/bakalauras/ba-plius/>. BA+ competencies can be replaced by an individual set of modules from all the modules taught at the University.
- PVP. The study module "Product Development Project" (12 credits) is provided in the 2nd or 3rd year of the study programme; in this module, students develop real products or services by searching for solutions to ideas or problem situations proposed by social partners, learning in interdisciplinary teams in collaboration with University researchers and social partners.
- Minor pedagogical studies. The study programme also offers the opportunity to acquire a teacher's qualification (60 credits). The description of the pedagogical studies is available on the website <https://stoiantiesiems.ktu.edu/bakalauras/pedagogikos-gretutines/>.

³ – Methods of provision of studies:

time of studies:

- daytime - classes are conducted during the day on working days, usually, 9:00-17:00
- evening – classes are conducted in the evening on working days, usually, 17:30-21:00
- weekend – classes are conducted on Saturdays, usually, 9:00-21:00; they may also be conducted on Fridays, 17:00-21:00

mode of studies:

- on-campus – studies are conducted in a physical space, on the premises of the University, with the teacher and students participating in the study activities face-to-face, in contact (not remotely);
- blended learning – studies are conducted combining physical and virtual spaces, where part of the studies is carried out with all students participating in the study activities at the same time face-to-face, in contact (not remotely), and part of the studies is carried out remotely, either synchronously or asynchronously, from distant workplaces.

⁴ – If part-time studies are chosen, the studies will only be conducted in the Lithuanian language.

⁶ – An opportunity to obtain a respective double/triple diploma if the student completes part of his/her studies at a specified foreign partner university.

- daytime - classes are conducted during the day on working days, usually, 9:00-17:00
- evening – classes are conducted in the evening on working days, usually, 17:30-21:00
- weekend – classes are conducted on Saturdays, usually, 9:00-21:00; they may also be conducted on Fridays, 17:00-21:00

mode of studies:

- on-campus – studies are conducted in a physical space, on the premises of the University, with the teacher and students participating in the study activities face-to-face, in contact (not remotely);
- blended learning – studies are conducted combining physical and virtual spaces, where part of the studies is carried out with all students participating in the study activities at the same time face-to-face, in contact (not remotely), and part of the studies is carried out remotely, either synchronously or asynchronously, from distant workplaces
- distance studies – studies are conducted in a virtual space (Moodle in the case of the University), using information and communication technologies, and all students participate in study activities remotely from remote workplaces;
- cyclic – 1-2 months of intense studies of one study module and the final assessment of that study module is conducted at the end of the cycle.

⁵ – Part of the classes is conducted in the daytime.

⁴ – An opportunity to obtain a double diploma if the student completes part of his/her studies at a specified foreign partner university.
